NEWS OF THE DAY.

To show the very age and body of the Times.

John B. Carey, superintendent of the jeil at Richmond, Va., was defrauded on Saturday last in Philadelphia of $100 by what is known at the Continental Hotel by a man of agreeable manners, who made himself acquainted with Mr. C.'s business and his place of residence, and then pretended to be from Virginia also. -He won the confidence of the stranger and proposed a walk. On the way they met a pretended creditor of the confidence man, and payment for a bill of goods was requested. Confidence man No. 1 wanted just $100 to make up with inserted in the Alexandria Gazette, a newsthe requisite amount. Carey handed it over, and the counterfeit creditor and debtor soon found means to get out of the way before the fraud was discovered.
